

Quiz Questions | Answers

Module 1 | Lesson 1.8 – Linting with ESLint

1. What is linting?

- A: The process of analyzing code for potential errors.
- B: A term used to represent how TypeScript checks for type errors during compile time.
- C: The process of compiling TypeScript code to valid JavaScript.
- D: The formatting of code performed with the help of code formatters.

Answer: A - The process of analyzing code for potential errors.

2. The `.eslintrc.json` file is a configuration file used to dictate the ESLint configuration of a certain directory.

- A: True
- B: False

Answer: A - True